Tony Teresa Leads 'Gams' Contest Race

Tony Teresa is skyrocketing to fame of a sort. Thus far he is leading the pack in the race for immortality and the gold trophy soon to be awarded the winner of the Sophomore Class sponsored Gorgeous Gams Contest.

As the totals were tabulated yesterday afternoon, Teresa hit a high of $10.96. Close on his heels were Joe Muren with $4.09 and Cory Reese with $2.04. The rest of the tallies weren't as encouraging.

Yet, according to contest chairman Don Ryan, "This year's totals for the first day of voting were much greater than those of last year. The committee is very pleased."

Four new contestants have been entered: Bob Paradise, Newman Club; Phil Hayes, Delta Gamma; Ken Lewis, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; and Carl Bianchini, Delta Upsilon.

Today the contest moves into its second day. Voting booths will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Outer Quad and Library Arch. The contest will continue on through the week with a big "Bermuda Short" dance scheduled in the Women's Gym for Friday night.

Contest Chairman Don Ryan emphasizes that Bermuda shorts are not required dress, but merely requested. He also emphasizes that this requested dress is "Bermuda" shorts.

The dance is set from 9 to 12 o'clock and admission is 35 cents for stag attendees and 50 cents per couple. Ryan reveals that all admissions paid before 10 o'clock will count as valid votes towards the contestants.

The contestant garnering the most votes will be announced and awarded the contest trophy at the dance. The trophies will be on display all week at the two voting booths; also, all candidates will be "on display" at the wind-up dance.

A complete list of all contestants, their sponsoring organizations, and their first-day tallies follow: Monty Hale, Alpha Tau Omega, $1.18; Mike Richards, Kappa Alpha Theta, 36 cents; Ray Freeman, YWCA, 91 cents;

Ken Grundhauser, Gamma Phi Beta, 94 cents; Milt Von Damm, Alpha Gamma Pi, $2.03; Tony Teresa, Sigma Kappa, $10.96; Cory Reese, Alpha Chi Omega, $2.04; Ralph Parker, Kappa Kappa Gamma, 50 cents;

Jim Balassi, Pi Kappa Alpha, $1.63; Jim Wellington, Kappa Phi, 2 cents; Al Walburg, Ivy Hall, 25 cents; Jim Hughes, Elmyck Hall, 86 cents; Jerry McCarthy, Delta Zeta, $1.59; Al Behr, Sigma Kappa, $1.22; Joe Muren, Chi Omega and Kappa Tau, $4.09.

New entrants Bob Paradise, Newman Club, 2 cents; Phil Hayes, Delta Gamma, 44 cents; Ken Lewis, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 25 cents; Carl Bianchini, Delta Upsilon, entered today.

Peninsula Press Assn. To Hold Annual Conference on SJS Campus Saturday

The third annual conference of the Peninsula Scholastic Press Assn. will be held Saturday on this campus. It will be under the sponsorship of the department of Journalism and Advertising.

Student and faculty representatives of publications of high schools between Gilroy and Daly City will be present. Approximately 200 people are expected.

The conference will open at 9:30 a.m. in the Concert Hall of the Music Building with a welcome by Dr. Dwight Bentel and Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon.

During the morning there will be a panel discussion consisting of journalism and advertising majors who have completed their internships. The topic will be "Innocents Abroad." Dr. William Gould will act as moderator. Miss Natalie Fancher, "Miss Majorette of California," will entertain with specialty twirling. At 11:30 a.m. box lunches will be served in Morris Daily Auditorium, courtesy of Spartan Daily and La Torre. Copies of high school papers will be on exhibit in the Spartan Daily lab. Yearbooks will be on exhibit in Room 3101.

From 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. delegates will divide into groups and meet with SJS faculty members and other experts. These groups will be devoted to a critical study of high school publications. Eleanor Norris, Leo Chiantelli, Rosemarie Magnasco, Jerry Wooliver and Jean Gmelin will be chairmen.

There will be an official meeting which will include election of officers and the decision of where next year's meeting will occur.

Dulles, Franco Confer During Big Four Recess

MADRID, Spain, Nov. 1. (UP)—U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles met with Generalissimo Francisco Franco at El Pardo Palace today for what informed sources described as a "wide ranging" conference on Mediterranean problems.

Dulles flew in from the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference at Geneva for a between lunch and supper huddle with Franco and his advisers.

There was no official agenda for their conference. But informed sources said they were expected to discuss Mediterranean defense, the Moroccan problem and the entry of Spain into the United Nations—and possibly the North Atlantic Treaty.

The United States is building air bases in Spain under a treaty with Franco.

It was the first official visit to Spain by a U.S. Secretary of State and American sources in Geneva said Dulles was making the trip to seek closer links between Spain and NATO and to bolster the West's Mediterranean defenses.

The U.S. Secretary planned to spend only the afternoon here and then return to the foreign ministers' Conference in Geneva this evening.

Forty-three SJS Coed Names Submitted Yesterday for 'Royal' Queen Contest

Names of contestants for the Poly Royal Queen contest were literally pouring in yesterday, according to Jan Heter, chairman of the event. The contest opened Monday and as of 1:30 p.m. that day there still were no names in the basket on top of the ASB president's desk. Yesterday, shortly before the 5 o'clock deadline, approximately 40 contestants had been entered.

"I'd like to thank all of those who have entered this contest," said Miss Heter. "The response has been wonderful." Miss Heter also stated that the event is not open to the public.

The first round of judging that will whittle the number of contestants to 15 is scheduled from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Student Union. The girls have been asked to be there promptly at 9:30 a.m. They are to wear campus clothes.

The 15 semi-finalists are asked to remain after the contest for a picture that will be taken by a photographer from the Spartan Daily.

According to Miss Heter, the girls will be judged on beauty, poise, figure, posture, personality and general appearance. A maximum of 25 points will be given for each of these factors. She also stated that her vote will be cast only in case of a tie.

The names of Marilyn Copeland, Bettilou Bowman and Sandi Trainer are entered without any sponsorship.

Alpha Chi Omega is sponsoring Sandy Ward, Gini Webster and Connie Maxwell; Alpha Phi, Christie Sorensen and Georgianna Clark; Delta Gamma, Pat Butler.

R. M. Nixon Says That Powerful Nation Has No Right To Have Satellites

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1 (UP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon, aiming a barb at Soviet Russia, said today "A powerful nation has no inherent right to be surrounded by satellites."

He contrasted Russia's dominance of the small countries of eastern Europe with the United States' "Good Neighbor Policy" toward the countries of Latin America.

The US policy, Nixon asserted in a speech prepared for delivery before the 11th annual meeting of the Inter-American Press Assn., has set an example for the world in a big power's relations with smaller countries in its area.

Sandy King, Dorinda Jones and Marilyn Van Dyke.

Delta Upsilon is sponsoring Jan Pearson and Delta Zeta is sponsoring Carole Luby, Gamma Phi Beta sponsors June Bibb, Bobbie Thum, Besty Hughes and Jan Warden; Kappa Alpha Theta sponsors Carol Lucas, Sue Doyle, Janice Capezoli, Dorothy Fairburn, Judy Goehr and Pat Lavery.

The Mark E's are sponsoring Delores Frazer, Carolyn Fry, Lila Boyer and Francis Smith, Sigma Alpha Epsilon is sponsoring Rhuea Nell Chase, and Sigma Kappa is sponsoring Charlene Baetjer, Judy Hanson and Diane Stevenson.

The San Jose Players are sponsoring Silvia Cirone; Chi Omega, Joan Randolph; Kappa Alpha, Pat Base; Sigma Pi, Harriet "Hope" Thomas and Kappa Kappa Gamma, Carol Card, Sandy Teboe, Bev Bagley, Patti Kaser, Sue Levinsky, Vivian Andres and Sonja Burrell.

Revelries Sets Date

The change of dates for next year's Revelries production as proposed by the Revelries Board, is under consideration by the Dean's Committee, according to Ted Balgooyen, Revelries Board adviser. The proposal would change performance dates from May 7-12 to two weekends, May 10, 11, 12, and 17, 18, 19.

Retirement Age for Spartan Employees In Managerial Positions Set at 65

Age 65 has been set as the retirement age for employees of the Spartan fountain and bookstore who hold managerial positions, it was revealed Monday by William Felse, student affairs business manager and secretary of the Spartan Shop Board.

During a meeting of the Spartan Shop Board held last week, Dr. James P. Heath, board chairman, suggested that a retirement

Possible Revision Of Election Rules Discussed by Court

Student Court's scheduled 3 p.m. meeting yesterday got off to a start at 3:30 p.m. with a discussion of revisions of election procedure, according to Bob Becker, chief justice.

Court members discussed the advisability of withholding a complete tabulation of election returns for publication, although the figures would be available for private individuals if they were interested. General opinion of the Court was that publishing such figures would lead to hurt feelings of some candidates.

Proposed revisions of election procedures were reported by Johnny Arreola, male senior justice. Changes would be that publicity start 30 days before elections, application would be picked up 30 days before elections, applications would be picked up 30 days before elections, and that ballots be kept on file until the next election.

Arreola also proposed that all voters sign a list, with their ASB number, as they cast their ballot. He would allow those working at the polls to check eligibility of the voter. However, Gary Clarke, junior justice, objected that this plan would be impractical, taking too much time.

SJS To Offer New Humanities Course

The President's Council gave the go-ahead to a new Humanities course for next spring semester called "Freedom and Life's Ideals," according to Dr. Fred F. Harclerod, dean of instruction.

The course will be listed as Humanities 160 or Philosophy 160. Dr. Arturo B. Fallico will be the instructor of the new course.

"This course primarily is offered to thoughtful seniors to encourage maturity in college education," Dr. Harclerod said. "It is to prepare seniors to meet the 'harsh cold world' that faces them after graduation instead of wondering with whom they will get a date this Friday night," the Dean emphasized.

The new course is a part of the college's plan to expand its offerings in the Humanities.

Dr. Fallico is responsible for the birth of the "Freedom and Life's Ideals" course, according to Dean Harclerod. Fallico developed the course after a year of studying under a Ford Foundation Fellowship. He was awarded the fellowship to study what philosophy has to offer general education.

The course will be offered on an experimental basis to seniors only. It will be included in the literature, philosophy and arts division of the general education requirements.

January Grads Must File Applications Soon

Candidates for January graduation must file applications in the Registrar's Office not later than Nov. 18, according to Miss Dorothy Muzzio, graduation clerk.

Approval of the candidates' majors and minors should be filed in the Registrar's Office prior to applying for graduation. Forms for this purpose are available in the Registrar's Office. Miss Muzzio added that candidates for June graduation are urged to file applications this semester.

SJS Coach Plans To Juggle Lineup

By JIM EGGERT

Football coach Bob Bronzan, disappointed in the recent performances of some of his "star" players, is shaking up his lineup in an effort to instill some "hustle and determination" into his team, which, after easily winning its first four games, has looked miserable in losing its last two to COP and Stanford.

Phi Mu, Kappa Delta To Hold Pledging

Phi Mu and Kappa Delta sororities both have decided to have pledging of charter members Nov. 13, according to representatives from both groups.

The University of California chapters at Berkeley of Phi Mu and Kappa Delta will do the pledging and national officers of each group probably will be present.

Mrs. Melvin J. Stuparich, province rush adviser for Kappa Delta, said that a dessert was held at the St. Claire Hotel Monday night. "Quite a few girls were there, and the party was very successful," Mrs. Stuparich commented.

A tea will be held Sunday afternoon and it will be the second party for Kappa Deltas.

Mrs. Norma Short, alumnae of Phi Mu at Berkeley, is temporarily replacing Miss Marilyn Larson, field secretary for Phi Mu, and Mrs. Short said that two get-togethers have been held, and a third will take place sometime this week.

Mrs. Short also said that both sororities have received permission from Miss Helen Dimmick, associate dean of activities, to continue pledging on a smaller scale through the rest of the semester.

Interviewing will be continued and any interested girls should leave their names in the Activities Office.

Council To Consider Two Fund Requests

Requests of the Intercollegiate Rifle team and the International Relations Club for additional funds will come before the Student Council at its meeting this afternoon in the Student Union.

Both requests previously had been brought before the group and were sent to the Board of Control. The IRC asked the Council for funds to attend the Model United Nations at Oregon State College while the Rifle team asked for enough money to buy five new weapons.

Planning Continues Despite Plaque Loss

The freshmen have pretty well tossed the oranges up in the air again. Since they've run off with the Frosh-Soph Mixer plaque, the sponsoring Sophomore Class seems to be left holding the fruit basket.

Sophomores are a determined lot, citrusly speaking, and it looks as though they're going ahead with plans for the mixer, scheduled for Nov. 8.

"This year's Frosh-Soph Mixer is going to be the best ever; all the various committees are working very hard to make this event a huge success," comments Richard Lang, publicity chairman.

Marian Waggoner, in charge of chaperones, already has scheduled Mary Margaret Neal, Lowell C. Pratt, Elinor M. Coombes, Lowell M. Walter, and Miss Ardith Frost, Sophomore Class adviser. Guest chaperone will be Dean Stanley Martin.

Pratt, Walter, and Neal will also serve as judges for the entertainment.

Mixer committee chairmen are Mary Ann Bogart, entertainment; Renny McClennahan, food; Jim Adams, clean-up; Ollie Quinn, decorations; Didi Smith, Ted Terzakis, games; Dick Takaka, rules and regulations; Curt Luft, tickets; and Ron Schmidt, police.

Bronzan has relegated heretofore first stringers Clarence Wessman, captain Jack Adams, Bob Light, Joe Uim, Mel Powell, and Leon O'Neill to anywhere from the second to the fourth team, for "lack of putting out all the way in practice and in the last three games."

"It is a shame that a team with so much potential should be let down by the men that should be the leaders—the men that should form the nucleus of the team," Bronzan declared. "These players are nearly all experienced seniors—the ones that should be showing the way for the newcomers. Instead, it has been the newcomers and sophomores who have been hustling and carrying the team."

Bronzan stated that senior end Wessman was an "utter disappointment in the Stanford game, and showed a complete lack of hustle." Wessman, a 6-4, 222-lb. giant, was tabbed a possible All-American by several pre-season prognosticators. He has lived up to that billing in only one game—against Arizona State, when he was largely responsible for jamming up the Sun Devil's multiple offense. Since then he has been conspicuous by his unimpressiveness. He is now running with the third team.

Another big disappointment to Bronzan is tackle and captain Adams, who along with the other starting tackle, Bob Light, has also been relegated to the third team.

"Lack of blocking and tackling by fullback Uim have relegated him to the second team," Bronzan said. Likewise with end Mel Powell, who has played good ball but been "inconsistent," according to Bronzan. Alternate first string end O'Neill has been placed on the third team.

In place of these men, Bronzan has installed Pete Galloni and Chuck Alexander at ends, Austin Laramie and ex-guard Jim Hughes at tackles, switched Jim Craig from center to first team guard, and is dividing the fullback chores between Willie Sanford on offense and Bob Keller on defense.

Galloni, Alexander, Laramie and Craig are juniors, while Sanford and Keller are sophomores.

Signs, Please...

When you first came to San Jose State College, how did you enter? We don't mean academically, but how did you get on campus? Did you have a rather difficult time finding an entrance?

It's not surprising if you did, with deep holes and steel girders all over the place. The college can be seen from First street, but with no signs pointing to an entrance, there is nary a hint as to how to enter our grounds.

This problem has reared its head many times in the past... the not too distant past, either.

For instance, last week the California Library Association held its annual meeting in San Jose. That was all very well and good, but many visitors had to walk or drive all the way around the outside of the campus before an entrance could be found. Some of the members were lucky enough to meet some one on the staff at the convention who could guide them.

What this all boils down to is this: couldn't some signs be placed directing interested people onto the campus?

How about one at Fourth and San Antonio streets? Or, if visitors wish to enter from the north, one at Fifth and San Fernando streets? The job could be done perhaps by a service organization. We have a nice looking campus; why not show people how to get into it.—D.B.

A Newsboy's Advice

Dear Thurst and Parry:

I went to the Stanford game Saturday and bought my date a State pennant from a middle-aged man who had a stand by the gate. As we left the stand to enter the game one of the small roving newsboys approached us and asked, "Mister, did you pay a dollar for that pennant?"

I said, "Sure."

And he said, "You're a jerk. Everybody else sells them for 75 cents."

I said, "Oh yeah?"

And the kid said, "Yeah." Mean while the man came over and told the boy to mind his own business.

Rosenheim Germany

HAMIDA BECKER has spent much of her life here in Rosenheim, Germany. She left Germany three years ago. She feels that if she ever returns to her homeland, it will be with a greater wisdom and understanding of the American people; favorable or unfavorable.

German Student Liked California, U.S. Teachers

Ed. note: (This is the second of a series of three articles concerning first reflections and recollections of America and the American student by a German SIS coed.)

The two days at the hotel soon came to an end and the daily life in America began. Never did I think one could actually get physically sick from homesickness. I just did not care to live anymore. The big apartment house, the language and the people were all so very strange to me. I went to a school with 3000 girls and I hated every minute of it, as you can imagine!

There are so many things one has to consider when he emigrates, such things as age, financial need, cultural background and also his personality. Will he adjust? Will he make good? Many do, but there are also those like the guy on 84th street who has been selling newspapers now for 35 years.

Is Miss Becker Wrong?

Dear Thurst and Parry:

The opinions expressed by Miss Hamida Becker in her article on America and Americans are indeed shocking and amazing to one just returned from a year in Germany and who has spent several more years among Germans and persons of German extraction in the United States.

It is the first time I have ever heard statements of this kind from a German. In view of the hundreds of thousands of Germans who have come to the U.S. to become happy, well-adjusted citizens, it might be appropriate to ask not what is wrong with the U.S. but what is wrong with Miss Becker.

Newman Club Skit Features Outing

A skit presenting a little light on the annual summer camping trip sponsored by the Newman Club will follow their regular business meeting tonight in Newman Hall, according to Father John S. Duryea, adviser.

The business meeting which begins at 8 o'clock will probably be a short one. Father Duryea will present his usual short talk after the meeting.

usually much nicer and more human.

Even though I felt more at ease at this high school, I was still alone. Often I did not know what to do because of that loneliness and so I participated in many activities. Today I know the answer to my problem of that time, but I will tell you about that later.

At my high school graduation I made a speech, and with this gesture, I ended a glorious year. In this year I did not only learn English, but I also got to know you Americans and by that time I was observing you pretty well.

I came to San Jose State in order to become a teacher of German, English and drama. Here I am a sophomore and have been in this country for three years. I shall now take this opportunity to give you my analysis of you.

Yes, of you, you smart, nationalistic and gregarious students of San Jose State College. Here it is. Ed. note: Hamida Becker's eye-opening comments will be in tomorrow's Spartan Daily. Watch for them.

Scholastic Group To Meet Tonight

Fifty-eight prospective pledges attended Tau Delta Phi's first smoker Thursday night at the IES Hall. Entertainment and refreshments were provided.

Revised Spartans to Coach Shuffles Squad

Of these new men, Sanford and Alexander have seen the most action this year. Sanford has carried the ball nine times for 52 yards and a 5.8 average. Alexander has caught three passes for 49 yards and one touchdown. Keller has packed the mail three times for nine yards.

Bronzan pointed out that these changes are by no means permanent, and that "if the men involved get off the dime, they can still salvage a decent season. They can still have a 7-2 season. This way we're liable to wind up 4-5," he said.

Tony Teresa, Stan Beasley, Mel Soong, Tom Powers, Jerry Ruse and Jim Hughes were not involved in Bronzan's changes.

"Ruse has been the steadiest lineman on the team," Bronzan stated. "He has lots of determination."

A spirited, scrappy and inspired band of Cal Poly Mustangs will face the revised San Jose State Spartans Saturday night in Spartan Stadium in the Golden Raiders last home appearance of the year.

The Mustangs have won six out of seven games to date and have the potential of upsetting the Spartans.

As a measure to put some fire into the Spartans, who played an inept game in losing to Stanford last week, Coach Bob Bronzan has radically changed the San Jose lineup.

The mighty Mustangs hold victories over Colorado Western, 40-18; Humboldt State, 26-0; San Diego State, 12-6; Santa Barbara College, 19-6; San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot, 44-12; and Midwestern, 19-7. Their only loss was to McMurry, Texas 23-13, and in this contest the Mustangs roared back from a 20-0 halftime deficit.

The Spartans, on the other hand, started strong in winning their first four games to Utah State, Hawaii, Arizona State and New Mexico. But then they fell by the wayside in losing to College of the Pacific and Stanford.

The Cowboys will have blood in their eyes when they face the Golden Raiders who humiliated them in 1947-48-49 by respective scores of 47-0, 47-7 and 47-0. The two squads have not met since 1949.

San Jose holds a 6-2 series record over Cal Poly. The Mustangs have not beaten the Spartans since 1926.

Mustang Coach LeRoy "The Silver Fox" Hughes has some loaded talent to throw against the Spartans. One halfback post is held by senior Perry Jester, last year's N.I.A.A. all-American, little all-Coast and all-conference first teams. Jester, 185-pound two-year letterman from Steubenville, Ohio, received little all-American honorable mention in 1954.

The Mustangs also have power at their two end positions with two little all-Coast and all-conference players, Bud Chadwick, a 205-pound senior from Cotati, Calif., and Jim Cox, 195-pound junior from Washington, D.C.

Poolmen Score Fifth Straight Victory, 8-5

Led by Art Lambert's six goals, the SJS water polo team showed that it's beginning to jell by scoring an 8-5 win over the Athens Club of Oakland Monday night in the losers' pool. It was the fifth straight win for coach Ed Rudloff's men after they dropped four of their first five outings.

The Spartans played without the services of regular starter Dick Threlfall, who has been sidelined for the rest of the season with a broken eardrum.

SJS has now rolled over Santa Clara, Fullerton J.C., Arden Hills, COP and the Athens Club in succession after early season losses to the Olympic Club, El Segundo Swim Club, USC and the University of California had given it a 1-4 mark.

Winter's Trackmen Take Fitness Exam

Track coach Bud Winter is having all his men take the Thomas K. Cureton physical fitness test in an effort to provide them with incentive to improve their best marks. The test involves tests of balance, flexibility, agility, power, strength and endurance.

Roger Bannister, first man to break the four-minute mile, took the test several years ago, and only passed six of the 18 tests. That year he finished fifth in the Olympics. After improving his physical condition to the point where he could pass every test, Bannister went on to better the four minute mile.

Disgruntled Fans Hang Kircher in Effigy

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 1 (UP) Disgruntled Washington State College football followers, angered by the record of their football team which had been labeled a strong Pacific Coast Conference contender, hanged coach Alton Kircher in effigy today and demanded he be replaced.

Students going to early classes were greeted by a dummy hanging from a tree in the center of the campus near the entrance to Todd Hall, the largest classroom building.

The dummy was labeled "Kircher." An attached sign read, "It's time for a change." It was assumed students were responsible for the display.

Sororities Celebrate Halloween, Plan Events

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The 5th annual Masquerade Ball will be held by Alpha Chi Omega Friday at Chateau Boussey. The favorite guy of Alpha Chi will be announced by Ron Fredrickson, last year's winner, at the event.

Everyone will wear costumes and a prize will be given to the couple wearing the most original costumes. Music will be provided by Johnny Vaughn and his band also will be dressed in costume.

It was a trick or treat Monday night when AXO pledges took their sneak and captured Joanne Mason, Gini Webster, Nancy Wegner, Dianne Morris and Gail Wood.

ALPHA PHI

Alpha Phi and Kappa Alphas joined forces Wednesday to officially celebrate the Halloween season.

Garbed in crazy costumes and weird masks, members of both houses entered the Alpha Phi house by crawling through a long barricaded tunnel.

After games, cider and doughnuts were served. Pledge entertainment from both houses provided many laughs, and later a combo composed of KA members entertained.

DELTA GAMMA

Sorority housemothers, advisers, presidents and faculty members were invited to attend the Delta Gamma Housemother's Tea held Sunday at the sorority house.

Mrs. Edna Coates, DG housemother, was the honored guest of the affair. Mrs. Coates, formerly a housemother at University of Utah, has been with the sorority since the beginning of the semester.

Members planning the event were Chairman Sue Watson, Barbara Scott, Dorinda Jones, Audrey Barnes, Barbara Clement, Phyllis Berrettoni and Kathy Kirby.

DELTA ZETA

Members of Delta Zeta celebrated their Founder's Day Sunday, Oct. 23. The assistant pledge adviser presented a summary on the history of the local chapter as part of the ceremony. ### KAPPA ALPHA THETA

The Theta Chi, Theta Xi and Kappa Alpha Thetas will get together Friday for the annual Theta Day. The three Greek groups will meet at the Theta Chi house for one-legged races, volley-ball and other games.

Fraternities Plan Exchanges, Parties For Weekend Activities

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The ATOs were guests at a before-game buffet lunch Saturday. Jack Friedenbach was host at his home in Los Altos. Approximately 80 members attended the event, which also featured a swimming party. After the game members and their dates enjoyed a buffet dinner in Woodside.

Monday evening, Jack Holland, fraternity adviser, celebrated his birthday at the ATO fraternity house.

Members of ATO and DU will hold an after-game dance at Villa Felice in Los Gatos after the Cal Poly game Saturday.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

Members of Delta Sigma Phi held a weiner roast following the Stanford game. A Halloween theme was featured for the affair.

Tom Bass was initiated Oct. 22 by the chapter before returning to his home in San Bernardino.

Two recent additions to the pledge class were Dick Frederiksen and Ron Riley. The results of the Pledge class election named Basil Foesti, president; Jack Rudd, vice president; Don Tacciano, secretary; John Dunn, treasurer; and Bill Manger, sergeant at arms.

DELTA UPSILON

Members of the local chapter of Delta Upsilon were guests at the Stanford chapter at a buffet luncheon before the SJS-Stanford game Saturday and at a party that night at the San Francisco Rowing Club.

Saturday night, the fraternity will hold a buffet supper for members and guests before the Cal Poly game. Following the game, the DUs and ATOs will hold a joint party at Villa Felice in Los Gatos. Music for the affair will be provided by Jim Houston and his band.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Saturday, the Phi Sigs will host the members and their dates at the University of California at Davis in an afternoon luncheon and joint party at the American Legion after the Cal Poly game. Included in the group from Davis will be ex-Spartan, Fred Boomer.

Newly elected pledge officers are: Jack Jayet, president; John Aguilar, vice president; Don Brierenbacher, secretary; Mac Raney, treasurer; and Dick Larsen, social chairman. The pledge class welcomed a new brother, Leroy Montez, recently.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

The Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity is planning a joint barn dance exchange with Gamma Phi Beta sorority Friday night, according to Jim Balassi, social chairman.

The PIKE pledges pulled their sneak prior to Saturday's game with Stanford. The pledges took George Snell, Bill Reese and Tony Ochincero as captives. The pledges went to Monterey for their hide-away.

Smoke, a cocker spaniel, has taken up residence at the Reed street fraternity house of Pi Kappa Alpha.

SIGMA PI

Actives of Sigma Pi were given a scare Monday night when pledges suddenly left their meeting. Pranks that followed the departures were in keeping with the Halloween spirit, according to Chuck Bucaria, publicity chairman.

A costume party is being planned by Karl Fratzke and Bob Whitehead, social chairmen, for the near future. It was announced that Bucaria announced the chapter's Scholarship trophy returned it to the fraternity house, but was almost "caught in the act" Monday night.
